

STUDY IN THE USA! MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAMS

The U.S. Department of State, through the U.S. Embassy and AMIDEAST, is pleased to announce that applications are now being accepted for master's degree studies in the United States under the J. William Fulbright Scholarship Program. Applications are for Fulbright grants beginning August 2013. Fulbright grants provide funding for two years of master's degree study in the U.S. in all fields except computer science, engineering, dentistry, medicine or medical fields, nursing, and pharmacy.

Priority consideration will be given to applicants in the fields of public policy, public administration, urban planning, communications, management, and international relations. Applicants in these fields who fall slightly short of the required TOEFL score of 550 for graduate study in the United States may be eligible for special language training and may be chosen as semi-finalists for the following grant year (2014).

Qualified applicants must have:

- A Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science (four- or five-year degree) from an accredited institution awarded at least one year prior to application;
- Demonstrated ability to undertake advanced studies, with a B.A. or B.S. grade point average equivalent to at least a 3.20 of 4.00 scale;
- Strong English language skills; and
- Preferred: At least one year of paid or voluntary work experience (minimum of two years for applicants to masters of business administration programs only).

Applicants must also be Yemeni citizens currently residing and working in Yemen. Dual nationals are ineligible for Fulbright grants.
