

Mohammad Shihan

Facilitator Growing a Business

Mohammad Shihan is the co-founder and CEO of The Little Engineer International and StrategyConsult (a consulting company based in Egypt).

As entrepreneur, strategic planner and former regional director of several multinational IT and consulting companies; Mohammad has over 22 years of work experience in the Middle Eastern and African markets. His expertise and knowledge cover general management, acquisitions and mergers, sales and marketing, company turnarounds, negotiations, strategic planning, brand building, market penetration, customer service and team building.

Mohammad launched several regional based operations demonstrating innovative capabilities with a focus on internet startups utilizing cloud computing. He also managed multinational companies such as FrontRange Solutions, Seagate Software, Holistic Management Systems and Gulf Equity, covering the fields of customer relations management, data warehousing and business intelligence solutions.