

TOEFL® Test Day Tips

You've practiced hard and now you are ready for your big day. Here is some information to prepare you for the testing experience itself.

1

Plan Your Trip

Plan your trip to the testing site:

Check the identification (ID) requirements for your testing location at www.ets.org/toefl/id.

Determine the best way to travel and how long it takes to get to the testing site. You need to arrive 30 minutes before your scheduled start time.

The day before your test, check your online profile for any details that may have changed, such as testing room or start time.

Make sure to bring your photo ID and registration confirmation with you.

2

The Testing Site

Arriving at the testing site:

You will need to present acceptable ID and your registration confirmation to enter the testing site.

A photo opportunity:

Your picture will be taken and displayed at your test station and on your official score report.

3

Your Testing Station

Your testing station:

You will be assigned a seat a few minutes before your start time.

No electronic devices or food are allowed in the testing room. For other restrictions, check the website at www.ets.org/toefl.

You can use the restroom at any time, but remember — the clock does not stop for your test.

4

The TOEFL Test

Total length of the test:
4 hours

Reading

60 – 100 minutes,
36 – 70 questions.
Read passages,
then respond to
questions.

Listening

60 – 90 minutes,
34 – 51 questions.
Listen to lectures
or a classroom
discussion, then respond to questions.

Break

Mandatory
10-minute break
for all test takers.

Speaking

20 minutes,
6 tasks.
Using a microphone,
speak about familiar
topics, and discuss
material you read
about and listen to.

Writing

50 minutes,
2 tasks.
Read a passage,
listen to a recording and then write
your response (keyboard typing).

"The TOEFL® test" refers to the TOEFL iBT™, which is administered at testing sites worldwide. The TOEFL PBT (paper-based test) is available only in select locations where TOEFL iBT testing is not possible.

For more information, visit www.ets.org/toefl.

TOEFL®

Go anywhere from here.

The TOEFL® test has 5 BIG advantages

1 Most accepted

7,500 institutions in 130 countries including the top universities in Australia, the U.K., the U.S. and Canada

2 Most respected around the world

Your scores will help you stand out and be noticed

3 Most accurate measure

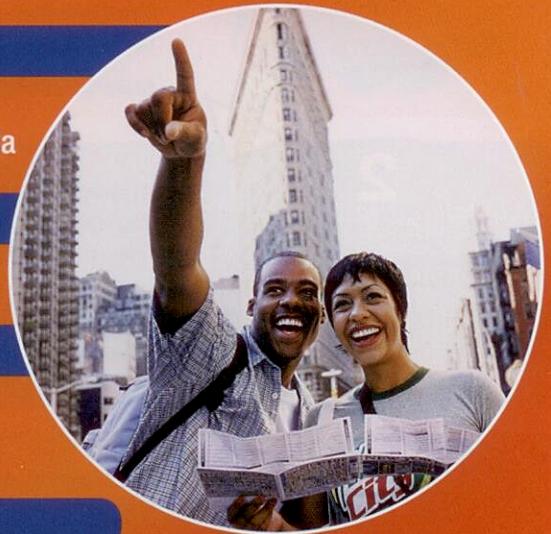

Assesses the academic English skills you will actually use in class

4 Most fair and unbiased

Scoring methods provide a complete picture of your ability to communicate

5 Most testing sites

4,500 locations in 165 countries

Take the test that more admissions officers prefer.*

Give yourself the advantage — register today at www.toeflgoanywhere.org.

4 out of 5 Admissions Officers
PREFER
the TOEFL
Test

ETS — Listening. Learning. Leading.®

* Source: Survey of 263 admissions officers at U.S. universities, of which 212 accept both the TOEFL test and the IELTS™ test and 152 state a preference.