

Education

“Being able to certify our students’ English level with the TOEIC test has allowed our Bachelor and Engineer graduates to acquire not only the basic competencies, but to also develop linguistic competencies that are needed to reach the local and international job market.”

Milton Ascencion, Dean of the Language School, University Don Bosco
El Salvador

Give your students an edge in the global marketplace.

More careers than ever before are requiring proficient English language skills due to the growing need for a multilingual workforce. Universities, technical schools and vocational schools now expect their graduating students to communicate in English. The TOEIC tests are valuable tools for developing and measuring your students’ English skills and can help prepare your students to compete and succeed in the international workplace.

The TOEIC® tests are the global standard for English-language assessment.

ETS, an industry leader in English-language assessment for over 60 years, designed the TOEIC tests to measure workplace English skills. Test questions are based on real-life situations that are relevant to global organizations and familiar across cultures. In fact, more than 10,000 organizations in 120 countries rely on the TOEIC tests to hire, promote and place people with the right English skills.

Institutions worldwide consider the TOEIC tests indispensable

“The Engineering Specialized College (ITCA-FEPADE) uses the TOEIC test on all of the students in technical careers as a tool to facilitate opportunities, and also to detect deficiencies in the knowledge of the language so that they can be corrected. TOEIC is an important part of our internal processes.”

Jose Roberto Guzman
Director de la Escuela de Ciencias Basicas
Escuela Especializada en Ingenieria ITCA-FEPADE
El Salvador

“The Test of English for International Communication (TOEIC) has been chosen (for ILEI) to assess students before graduation. Scores obtained on this test and added to (a student’s) CV are recognized by companies all over the world.”

Laurent Bazin, Director
Institute of Languages and International Studies
(ILEI) Versailles Saint-Quentin University
France

The TOEIC® tests can help you build a more effective language program.

Fair, valid and reliable TOEIC scores can provide important benchmarks that can help you evaluate and strengthen your program's curriculum. As students graduate and find jobs, their success can reflect positively on your institution, giving you a competitive advantage.

ETS offers TOEIC tests to meet your needs.

The TOEIC® Listening and Reading test is a valid assessment of English language listening and reading skills. The test is designed to determine if individuals have the ability to comprehend and use English effectively in the workplace. The test uses real examples of spoken and written English collected from around the world. In addition, test results provide meaningful feedback about test takers' strengths and weaknesses.

The TOEIC® Speaking and Writing tests are the perfect complement to the TOEIC Listening and Reading test. They are two separate assessments that can be taken individually, together or in combination with the TOEIC Listening and Reading test for an in-depth assessment of all four skills.
