Local Transportation	$200
Meals	$400
Personal Expenses	$300
Internet	$100
Books	$25
TOTAL	$2,525

¹ Tuition and fees are subject to change.

² International airfare will vary depending on departure city.

Tuition and fees include:

- Pre-departure preparation
- All courses
- All-inclusive on-site orientation
- Housing
- One program-organized excursion
- Medical insurance, including medical evacuation and repatriation, and political and natural disaster evacuation coverage (students are covered for the duration of the program)
- AMIDEAST Grade Report
- Program-supplied mobile phone for use in Tunisia (usage charges not included)

Tuition and Fees do NOT cover:

- International airfare
- Local personal transportation
- Communication and other personal expenses
- Books
- Most meals
- Insurance for student travel prior to or following the official dates of the program
- Visa and/or exit fees
- Medical expenses (including visits to doctors, medical tests, and medications). AMIDEAST recommends students have direct access (e.g. via a debit card or cash) to at least $300 to pay for any necessary medical expenses while abroad. Should a student expect to see medical professional(s) for on-going physical or mental health issues while abroad, he/she may want to consider bringing more than $300 for this purpose. Information outlining insurance coverage and the reimbursement process is provided on the AMIDEAST Student Portal after acceptance.
